Also, containing complete directions for declaring intentions, accepting vows, and retaining affections, both before and after marriage. A treatise of the Etiquette of Marriage; describing the invitations, the dresses, the ceremony, and the proper behavior of both Bride and Bridegroom, whether in Public or behind the Nuptial Curtain. It tells plainly how to begin courting; The way to get over bashfulness. The way to "sit up." The way to find the soft spot in a sweetheart's breast. The way to write a love letter. The way to easily win a girl's consent. The way to pop the question to her. The way "to do up things" before and after an engagement. The way to receive and the way to decline an offer. The way to "give the mitten" genteely. The way to make yourself agreeable during an engagement. The way Bridesmaids and Groomsmen should dress and perform their duties. The way you should act and the things you should do at a wedding and at wedding receptions. The furniture, decorations and behavior in the Bridal Chamber. It speaks in plain, honest words, revealing knowledge that everybody ought to know, upon subjects of as vital import to all as the very air we breathe. Neither those already married, nor those contemplating the tying of the conubial knot, can afford to be another day without a knowledge of the Many Mystrious Things that are so truthfully and vividly explained in this work. It is just the very treatise to be in the hands of every young bachelor or maiden, every married man or woman, every widow or widower, young or old. In fact, there is not a lady or gentleman in the world—young or old, single or married—who cannot glean a vast amount of useful information that will enlighten them on all points of Courtship and Marriage, as well as their ancillary duties, pleasures and obligations. This is the most complete, and by far the most valuable, work that has ever been brought out on this all-important subject. We beg of you, therefore, not to content on this all-important subject. # COOK BOOK

A Practical and Reliable Guide to Every-day Cookery, By an Experienced Housekeeper.

PRICE, 25 CENTS, by mail, post-paid.

This work on Cookery has several noteworthy features entirely distinct from any heretofore published. It is arranged so that the housewife can tell at a glance the time necessary to cook any dish or article of diet. It also gives some practical hints and suggestions for selecting the various meats, vegetables, etc., as well as directions for preserving, storing and keeping them. Special attention is paid to economy, and an effort is made to remove the reproach which justly clings to American cookery, of being extravagant and wasteful, without being palatable and healthful. Full instructions are given to prepare all kinds of Pies, Puddings, Cakes, Jellies, etc., as well as preparing and cooking all kinds of Meats, Soups, Gravies, Fish, Vegetables, etc., in an economical and appetizing manner. It also contains considerable miscellaneous information pertaining to the household, such as Removing Kitchen Odors, Grease Spots, Iron Stains, Ink Spots in Books; Cleaning, Scouring, Receipts for Washing, etc., and a variety of others equally useful and necessary to the housekeeper or cook. These features make this work the best, most practical, and popular cook book ever issued. This book will be sent by mail, post-paid, on receipt of 25 Cents in silver or postage stamps.

Callahan's EASY METHOD FOR LEARNING Ventriloquism Quickly

PRICE, 15 CENTS; by mail, post-paid.

CALLAHAN'S EASY METHOD FOR LEARNING VENTRILLOQUISM QUICKLY

Published by WEHMAN BROS., N. Y. City.

This great book was written by Mr. George W. Callahan, one of the most famous of the world's ventriloquists. Mr. Callahan here clearly shows that ventriloquism is not a natural gift, but that by training and practice it may be acquired by any one, and this is certainly an accomplishment well worth cultivating, for nothing will so amuse and mystify a social gathering as the feats of the ventriloquist. He appears to be a man of a dozen voices. In his natural tone of voice he asks a question, and the answer appears to come from the depths of the chimney, in the weak accents of a little child. Again, we hear the voice of an old man appearing to proceed from the roof of the building, the distant barking of a dog, etc. These wonderful imitations are performed without the slightest movement of the lips, greatly to the astonishment of the audience. Would you not like to acquire this amusing and mystifying accomplishment? You can do so easily and readily by studying the directions contained in this book, which is the best and most complete instructor in the art of ventriloquism ever published. It is a book of 64 large pages, and will be sent by mail, post-paid, upon receipt of 15 Cents.

WEHMAN BROS.' Tricks and Ventriloquists' Guide

New Book of PRICE, 25 CENTS, by mail, post-paid.

This is the latest and best book published on Tricks, Ventriloquism, Second-Sight and Fireside Mesmerism. It is illustrated with nearly 100 engravings. The instructions for performing are so plainly given that any child, with a little practice, can do them, as they only require simple apparatus. We will mention a few of the tricks in this book: How to cut a pack of shavings and change them into a ribbon; how to make a dime pass through a table; how to make fire burn under water; how to put a ring through your cheek and then bring it on a stick; how to make a loaf dance without it; taking in the oven; how to cut off a chicken's head without killing it; how to make ice in summer; how to change water into wine; a lamp that will burn for a year; how to cut off your nose; how to make fire pop in your mouth; how to produce a mouse from a pack of cards; how to tell the number any person thinks of; how to tell in advance a card selected by any one; how to tell if a person is in love; how to remove a man's shirt without taking off his coat or vest; how to hold a glass of water upside down without spilling it; how to become a Ventriloquist, and 150 other equally astonishing and wonderful tricks. Little should not fail to get this highly amusing and wonderful book. Price, by mail, post-paid, only TWENTY-FIVE CENTS per copy (silver or postage stamps).

350 TOASTS, No. 1

PRICE, 10 CENTS.

HEY, MEN! HEY, BOYS! (and GIRLS on the "Q. T.")

In order to be in the swim, you must be able to toast any person, male or female, or to respond to any sentiment announced by the toastmaster, and as very few persons are prepared to do this on the spot at the moment, we have gotten up this book to help them to overcome their shortcomings in that respect when attending dinners, suppers, banquets, parties, feasts, festivals, stags, carousals, or, in fact, any kind of entertainment where toasts are in order. Better fact 20 cents and get No. 2 also. See the announcement of No. 2 below.

The following specimen toasts were extracted from this book:

Here's health to the girl
Who will drink when she can;
Here's health to the girl
Who will "rush the tin can."
And health to the girl
Who can dance the can-can—
'Tis the canny toast
Of an uncanny man.

Here's to a bird, a bottle
And an open-work stocking.
There's nothing in this
That's so very shocking.
The bird came from Jersey.
The bottle from France,
The open-work stocking
Was seen at a dance.

350 TOASTS, No. 2

PRICE, 10 CENTS, POST-PAID.

What we have said about Toast Book No. 1, above, applies equally as well to Toast Book No. 2. This book contains 350 toasts entirely different from those contained in No. 1, but equally as good. Better send 20 cents and get Nos. 1 and 2. See the announcement of No. 1 above.

The following specimen toasts were extracted from this book:

Give me a brook, a summer night,
A shady nook by moon's soft light;
A girl who's sweet and fair to see—
And you can leave the rest to me.

Here's to girls of every station,
Throughout our Yankee nation.

Here's to the breeze that blows the skirt
Of girls, revealing ankles pert.
Here's to angels in the skies,
That blow the dust in bad man's eyes.
