SMOOTH, TRUE-TO-SIZE LUMBER

Only the higher grades of Fir and Yellow Pine are selected at the sawmill for our finishing lumber. This selected material is then piled out in the open for "air" seasoning. After months, or perhaps even a year, it is brought into dry kilns. After days of mellowing, it is then ready to be surfaced four sides and stored in covered sheds. The finished product gives you easy-to-work lumber that won't curl, buckle or shrink—and stands the weather.

HOW DO THESE PRICES COMPARE WITH PRICES TWO YEARS AGO?

Yes, some of the prices on this page are slightly higher than prices 2 years ago, when O.P.A. was still in existence. To be exact, 46 of them have gone up. (The other 56 are still the same or even lower.) On those that have advanced, the increase averages less than 8%—the exact amount of the manufacturer's increase. Compare that with the way other items in the family budget have sky-rocketed.

COPPER OUTLIVES THE PYRAMIDS

Before the pyramids were built, copper pipe was used in crude form. Recent excavations on the island of Crete unearthed copper piping in good condition after thousands of years. Copper piping at our low prices will cost you very little more than rustable forms of piping. Consider carefully the different forms of rust-proof piping on this page. Compare prices with other types and you will find it will pay to install copper for permanency, clean water and trouble-free efficient service. At our low price everyone can enjoy a permanent, rust-proof water supply.

STRATELINE COPPER TUBING

ONLY THESE TWO TOOLS NEEDED

The latest development in copper piping is the Strateline system in which are used tubes of ample weight and slim, neat fittings. Joints are made by sweat soldering. The fitting is placed in position and heated with a torch. At the proper temperature, the solder, when held to the joint, will flow evenly and completely throughout the joint, regardless of position. Strateline copper is made in three weights: M (light), L (medium) and K (heavy). L and K are recommended for general plumbing use. L tests 2000 lbs. bursting pressure. Strateline copper tubing is 99.9% pure virgin copper. It is proof against rust and corrosion, which means clean water, no clogged pipes or expensive repairs. Fittings are of heavy red brass, designed for strength and trim appearance. A fitting for every requirement will be found in our complete stock. If you cannot make your own estimate from this catalog, bring in your sketch and we will estimate the job for you. All sizes and weights conform to Government specifications.

EASY TO FLANGE JOINTS-LIKE THE GAS LINE ON YOUR AUTOMOBILE

"PERMA" COPPER TUBING

This tubing, which conforms to Government specifications, is of the same sizes and weight as Strateline copper tubing, differing only in the fact that it bends easily. It can be used in more difficult places and with fewer fittings. It is used largely for water service lines from mains to buildings and is ideal for installations between walls and floors as it can be "fished" through close places. "Perma" fittings require no solder—they are attached to tubing by flaring the tubing ends. Only four tools are needed: hacksaw, flaring tool, hammer and wrench. Strateline solder fittings can also be used, as "Perma" and Strateline tubings are of the same diameters. With either type of fitting, no expensive cutting and threading tools are required. Type L and K are recommended for inside of buildings—type K for underground use. Visit our store and let us show you how easy it is to install "Perma" copper tubing.

USE OUR COMPLETE PIPE SERVICE

In our complete stock of pipe and fittings, you will find anything you need for water supply, drainage, sewer, heating, gas, irrigation, railing, structural, industrial or other piping. We maintain a service for cutting and threading pipe to your exact measurement or sketch of installation.

STEEL PIPE

Our steel pipe is made in the nation's best known mills of high quality steel and the latest scientific methods. It is of uniform thickness—cuts and threads easily and every length is full weight. Each length is carefully inspected and tested under severe hydraulic pressure. Galvanized pipe is cleaned in an acid bath and then coated inside and out with pure molten zinc. It is accurately threaded by machine. Each full length is furnished with full threads on each end and one coupling without extra charge. Pipe cut and threaded to your measurements carries a slight additional charge. As of the time this catalog is printed, steel pipe is extremely scarce, and we may not be able to meet your requirements at all times. Please bear with us and call again.

EVEN ON THE SCARCEST ITEMS — WE'VE KEPT PRICES DOWN

The scarcity of an item has never been a factor in setting our prices. When soil pipe was selling at $10.00 a foot in many places, we still kept the rock-bottom prices you see on this page. We intend to be in business for a long time, and we believe you will remember companies like ourselves that didn't take advantage of shortages. That's why we have always kept the same low prices regardless of whether the material was plentiful or "hard-to-get."

SOIL PIPE YOU CAN DEPEND UPON

Cast iron soil pipe is far more satisfactory for sewers than clay tile. It does not sag or crack. When the joints of cast iron pipe are properly caulked, roots cannot enter to clog the sewer. Our pipe is made of close-grained, dense, full-weight cast iron. Walls of uniform thickness. Easily cut with a cold chisel. All pipe and fittings are extra heavy weight and will conform to even the strictest local plumbing codes.
