

YOUR LIBRARY

A List of Publications Necessary for the Successful Conduct of Building-Loan and Savings Associations.

The American Building Association News.

Published monthly, since 1880. Official organ of the United States League of Local Building Associations. Enables the officers to keep in touch with the progressive spirit of the movement. It is a distinct advantage to every building association to subscribe for individual copies of the NEWS for each of its directors, officers and attorneys.

Subscription.....$3.00 per Year

Cyclopedia of Building, Loan and Savings Associations.

By Henry S. Rosenthal, editor AMERICAN BUILDING ASSOCIATION NEWS. This cyclopedia is a complete compendium of building association information, including an historical and statistical review of the institution and leagues of the United States. It embraces all authentic data of organization, laws, legislation, taxation, management and numerous comprehensive record forms, interest and distribution tables, etc. It is a most valuable aid to greater efficiency and extension of building and loan service.

Fifth Edition, revised and enlarged,
$7.50 per copy.

Ten Lessons on Selling the Build- ing and Loan Idea.

By R. Holtby Myers. For the upbuilding of building associations, for the systematic acquirement of new accounts, these ten lessons, prepared by a practical man, are incomparable. Repays users hundredfold in increased efficiency. Issued in letter-size pages, type-writing, in loose-leaf binders.

Subscription Price, $10.00 per set

Building and Loan Explained.

By R. Holtby Myers. This book, written in the crisp and attractive style of the well-known author, gives a thorough explanation of the principles, the character, the advantages, the methods and practices, and the safety of building associations. Adapted for use in the acquisition of large, new accounts and deposits.

Library Edition, bound, $1.00 each,
12 for $9.00

Paper Edition, 50c each, 12 for $4.00,
100 for $20.00, 500 for $100.00

Robinsonian Building-Loan Interest Tables.

Recognized throughout the United States and Canada as the authoritative reference tables for all building-loan calculations as well as for many other kinds of computations.

Price, $9.00 per copy.

Law of Building and Loan Associations.

By Joseph H. Sundheim. A complete treatise on the law, theory and practice of building and loan associations. Also forms, and the statutes relating to associations in Pennsylvania, Ohio, New York, Illinois, Massachusetts and New Jersey. Valuable to officers, attorneys, directors and members.

Price, $6.00 per copy.

Appraisers' and Adjusters' Handbook.

By Wm. Arthur. Valuing an existing building is just as important as estimating the cost of a new one. This handy book on appraisal tells how to find the present-day value of an existing building, so very necessary to know when the granting of a loan by a building association is depending upon such appraisal. 634 pages, 4½ x 7 inches.

Gilt Edge Flexible Fabrikoid, $5.00

U. S. League Proceedings for 1925.

Only a few on hand.

Single copies, paper bound, 50c

The American Building Association News.

Volume XLV (1925).

Bound. These volumes are especially rich in suggestions for the progressive and successful management of building-loan and savings associations.

Price, $5.00 per volume.

The Books of a Thousand Homes.

Volume 1, edited by Henry Atterbury Smith, contains plans and cost estimates of five hundred inexpensive four- to eight-room homes, designed by architects of the highest standing.

Price, $3.00 per copy

The Vest Pocket Bookkeeper.

Short cuts in figures. Considered by experts as the most thorough and perfect self-teacher now published. Modern Methods of Accounting interestingly developed.

Bound in Leatherette, per copy, $1.00.

The Vest Pocket Lawyer.

A manual of reference for the business man—the law student—the notary public—the farmer—the merchant, and the banker. Valuable for any Building Association or Library. 360 pp.

Cloth Bound, $1.50.

The Real Estate Educator.

By F. M. Payne. This revised edition contains more information regarding the Real Estate business than could be obtained in years of study. The information on Appraising and Selling of Real Estate makes it especially valuable to Building-Loan Associations.

Bound in Cloth, $2.00.

Estimating the Cost of Building.

By Arthur W. Joslin, Building Estimator and Contractor. A systematic treatise on factors of cost and superintendence, plan reading, estimating and cost of building alterations and on system in the execution of building contracts.

Third Edition—Revised and enlarged,
$2.00 per copy

Building Association Supplies.

A long and wide experience enables us to furnish at short notice any kind of supplies in the printing line used by building, loan and savings associations. We specialize in pass-books, ledgers, journals, etc. Also legal forms of every kind.

Mail Orders Solicited. Reasonable Prices

New Building Estimators' Handbook.

By William Arthur. Over 1,000 pages, with many tables and illustrations. Let this new guide-book eliminate the possibility of any loss. Will send for 5 days' free examination if desired.

Bound in Flexible Keratol, $6.00

Advertising Booklets.

Thrift circulars showing the endorsements of President Coolidge, Secretary Hughes and other high officials.

Ask for Samples and Quantity Prices

American Building Association News,
22 East Twelfth Street, CINCINNATI, OHIO