Rules.

1.—All Competitors in every Class must furnish exact details of cost, and, in the Cookery Competitions, exact recipes and prices.

2.—For each Competition 2d. entrance fee is charged. Elementary School children pay only 1d.

3.—Competitors are begged to send in their names to one of the Hon. Secs. as soon as possible. No names will be accepted after January 20th.

4.—No Prizes will be awarded for exhibits that fail to reach a certain standard of excellence.

5.—Elaborate needlework and fancywork is not wanted. Economy of time must be studied as well as economy of material. The Judges will look first for evidence of ingenuity, of inventive power, and of adaptability to the conditions of to-day.

6.—Prizes will be given in the forms of War Saving Certificates wholly or partly paid for.

7.—The decision of the Judges will be final.

8.—All articles remain the property of the Competitors unless they are specially given to the Hon. Secs.

9.—Needlework for competition, and written papers, should be sent to one of the Hon. Secs. not later than February 1st. Due notice will be given to each competitor of the days when Furniture and Cookery exhibits can be received at St. James's Hall. Papers for No. 11 must be sent in by Monday night,

10.—Every article sent for competition must have firmly attached to it a fastened envelope containing the name and address of the competitor. Outside the envelope is to be written a fancy name only. The envelopes will be opened after the Judges have awarded the prizes. February 12th.

11.—Should a sufficient number of competitors enter for Nos. 1, 4, or 12, they will be divided into two classes, Amateurs & Professionals, & the prizes will be doubled.
